

HUNGRY BEAR

ZZZZZZ... YAWN!

Wow! That was a loooooooooooooong nap!

Eek! I am skinny!

Well, time to leave the den!

And, time to eat!

I should start with some grass...

And, more grass...

And, more grass...

I have had my fill of grass. Hmm... I should look for something more filling!

Maybe, I will grab some insects or some fungus or some...

The smell is coming from that funny looking thing.

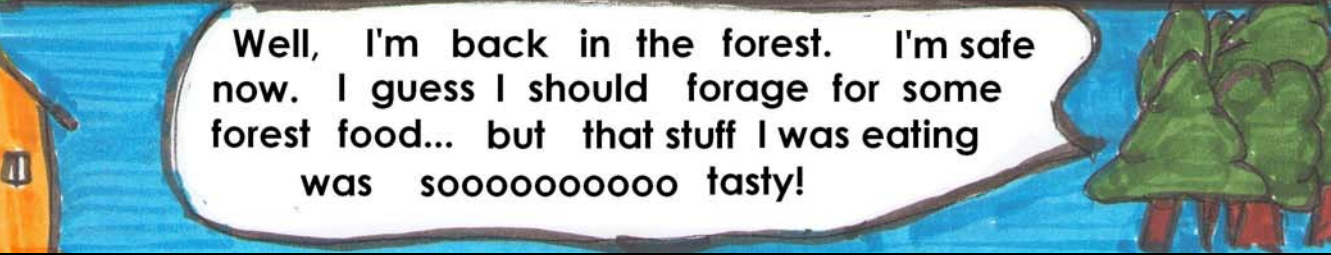

I have to check this out!

Something is in that thing that looks like a tree stump.

AHHH! A BEAR!!!

I am really hungry!

But, I do not want to see that furless beast again!

But, that food tasted great!

And, that furless thing didn't really do anything to me.

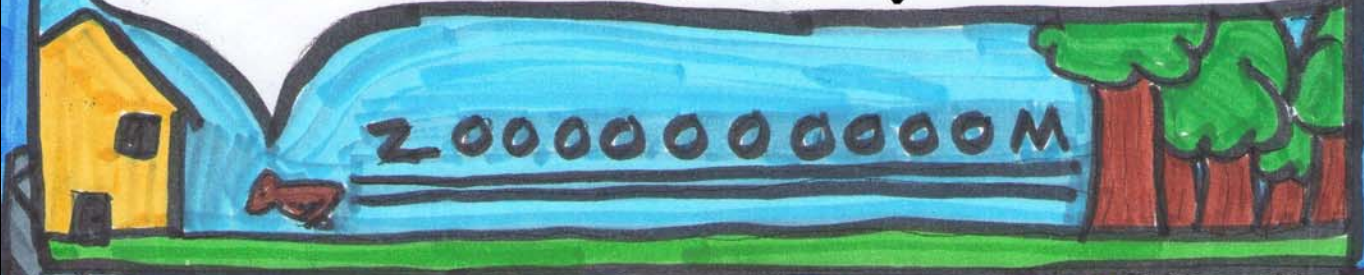

And, that food was so easy to grab!

And... sniff, sniff

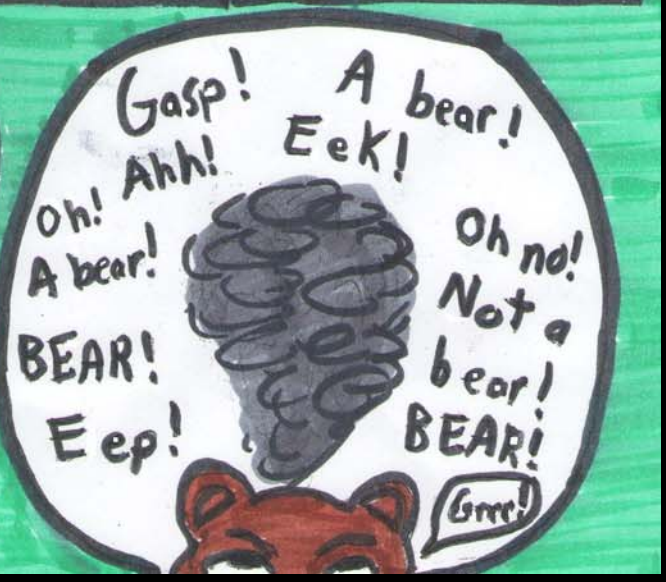

I NEED THAT FOOD!!!

AHH! A BEAR!

BE QUIET! ROAR!

It's dangerous!

Scary!

Help!

Bad Bear!

THUD

Well, he has been tranquilized. Poor guy! He just ate too much garbage and became too unafraid of people.

zzzzzzz...

I guess we should put him in the cage and move him into the forest.

zzz

Two hours later...

Hoot?

ZZZ...
Snort!

WHERE AM I ????

I guess the furless beasts moved me back into the forest. That is ok. I will find some forest food.

Now, I need to remember what forest food looks like.

OH, NO! I have forgotten how to eat in the forest!

That food I ate was tasty, but it definitely DID NOT make my tummy happy! Ouch!

Rumble

So, I am stuck in this strange forest, my tummy hurts from eating that junk, and I don't remember how to find food in the forest. THIS IS NOT GOOD!

WHAT WILL I DO??!?

ZZZ... snort! Huh?

I am still in my den!
It was all a terrible,
terrible dream! WHEW!

I am a lucky bear.
That nightmare wasn't real. However, bad things like what happened
in my dream happen
TOO MUCH to bears!
Please, make sure you keep things bears find yummy AWAY from bears!
A wild bear is a happy bear!
